COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $500, which is due immediately.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $435, 696.30 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. The defendant shall receive credit for any amount of payment already made.

The balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least $500 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants, Clarita Agoncillo (Docket No. CR-06-00642-SJO), Marvin Barroquillo (Docket No. CR-07-00005-SJO), and for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Parvin Atabay, is hereby committed on Counts 1 through 5 of the Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 18 months. This term consists of 18 months on each of Counts 1 through 5 of the Information, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years. This term consists of 3 years on each of Counts 1 through 5 and years on each of Counts of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state or federal law or ordinance;
3. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving medical clinic management or any other business involving medical billing without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. 5. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing and/or certification by any local, state or federal agency without prior approval of the Probation Officer;

The Probation Officer shall disclose the presentence report and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports to the treatment provider;
7. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's mental health to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672; and
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

USA vs. ATABAY, ParvinDocket No.: CR 07-00375-SJO

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, June 15, 2010. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The Court advises the defendant of his right to appeal.

The Court Orders the bond exonerated upon surrender.

The Court recommends that the defendant shall be incarcerated in a facility that is equipped to monitor and treat her medical ailments.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
